

NetY Ambassador Programme

Jianne Morny SORIANO

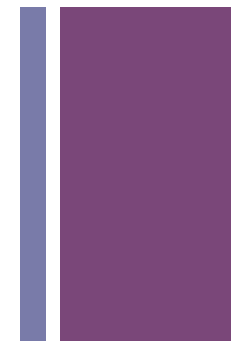

NetY Programme

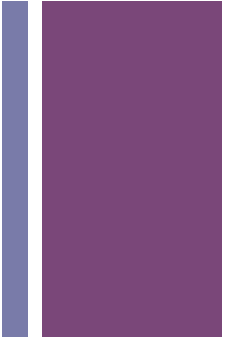

- Joined the iCity NetY Ambassador's Programme in 2013
- Programme to do a research on any ICT topic
- Team of 3, team leader
- Workshops were conducted in Cantonese (biggest challenge)
- Only non-Chinese students to join
- Minority group

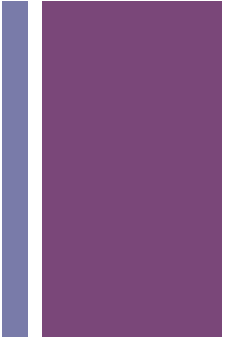

NetY Programme

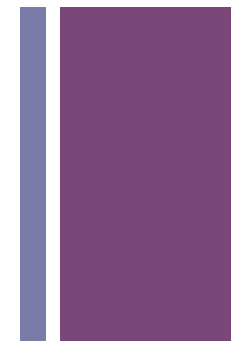

- Research topic: “Investigating the relationship of the increase in suicide rates to cyberbullying”
- Cyberbullying and anonymity are connected
- The victim usually knows the “bully”
- Safety of children and youth in the internet (safe environment?)
- Difficulties: Limited data, limited time and limited resources

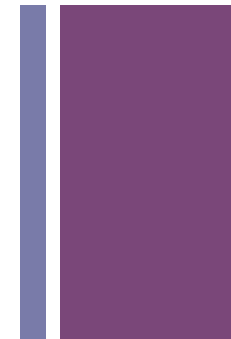

NetY Programme

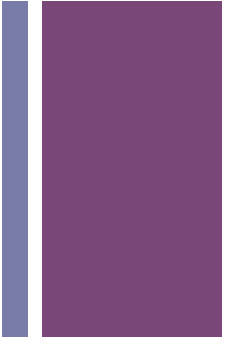

- Joined because of the social aspects instead of the technical
- Develop sense of digital citizenship (digital access, digital communication, digital literacy, digital rights and responsibilities)
- Youth participation and equal participation
- Different POVs
- Exposure and experience
- First step: awareness
- Next step?

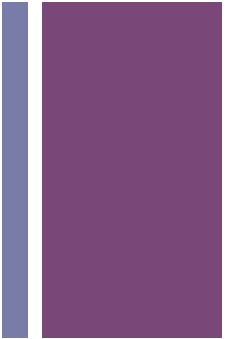

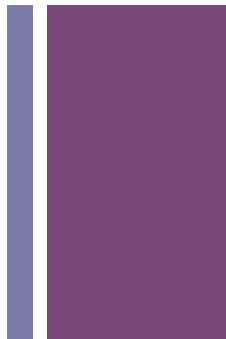

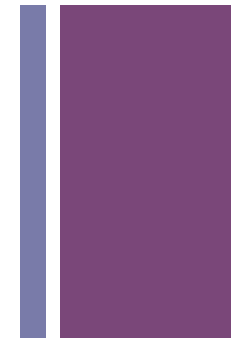

IGF

- Workshop on anonymity, child protection and child rights (safety awareness online)
- Engage in discussions with peers from other countries and regions as well as professionals in this field
- Voice matters
- Encourages youth power
- Multi-stakeholder approach

+ NetMission & yIGF

- Experience in internet governance discussions
- Input experiences
- Youth to youth
- Youth as a majority of internet users
- yIGF: platform for youth and prepare youth (university students)
- Pre-event: land developer (multi-stakeholder approach), IDEA wall (youth to youth and youth to experts engagement)
- Day 1 and 2: workshops and role-play
- Peer facilitator and camp organizer (past on experience as mentors)

